Galleria Classic Solid European Rustic Oak Flooring 18mm x 150mm Natural Smoke Lacquered

With a beautiful look that will last a lifetime, solid wood is one of the most desirable of all flooring types, and Galleria Classic Solid European Rustic Oak Flooring 18mm x 150mm Natural Smoke Lacquered is a fantastic example of what makes it so special.

Crafted from a single piece of finest European oak for that luxurious solid wood feel underfoot, this fabulous floor features a lively swirling grain alive with knots and streaks and boasts subtle grey tones that will go beautifully with a huge range of colour schemes. It comes in random long-length planks (measuring between 400mm and 2200mm) that are ideal for giving a relaxed, welcoming look in any setting and helping to balance the proportions of longer rooms. The boards have been gently brushed to enhance their texture and are protected with a durable and lasting UV lacquer that guards against stains.

At 18mm thick, this is a truly premium product, promising decades of use. With a traditional tongue and groove joint, it can be installed directly onto joists and either glued or nailed down. For that reason, installation of Galleria Classic Solid European Rustic Oak Flooring 18mm x 150mm Natural Smoke Lacquered is best left to professionals.
