Spectra Sandy Oak Plank Luxury Rigid Core Click Vinyl Flooring

Emphasizing contemporary twists on timeless tropes, Spectra Sandy Oak Plank adds shine to your home with its dazzling colour that combines levels of natural light - usually reserved for coastal getaways - with the classic elegance of a wood-effect floor and an authentic, textured surface to match its realistic grain. All of this is folded into a rigid core vinyl package that delivers the peak in practicality with a unique polyurethane layer to protect against stains and looking its best.

With its AC3 rating and 12-year domestic warranty, this waterproof floor has plenty to offer for your peace of mind. For your inner stylist it promises a wonderful replication of real wood thanks to its 1.3m long planks that, with their four bevelled edges, create a truly breath-taking effect for your finished floor. This is something your inner DIY demon can bring forward, as innovative click-system technology makes this floor that's suitable for almost any part of your home easy to install yourself.
