Home Choice Engineered European Select Oak Flooring 14mm x 130mm Honey Piccolo Lacquered

With its traditional, laidback look and rich golden colourway, Home Choice Engineered European Honey Piccolo Select Oak Lacquered Flooring will add instant warmth to any room in the home.

Made using quality European oak in a select grade, this stunning floor has minimal sapwood for less pronounced colour variation, features delicate grain markings and only a few small knots for a clean look that is elegant without being austere. Given a brushed finish that lets the expressive oak grain play its part, this floor is finished with a durable UV matt lacquer for excellent protection against wear and tear.

The classically proportioned mid-width, mid-length planks (130mm x 1100mm) are extremely versatile and will enhance rooms of all shapes and sizes, bevelled on all four sides to bring a classic wood floor look.

Offering lasting good looks, Home Choice Engineered European Honey Piccolo Select Oak Lacquered Flooring comes with a 2.5mm real wood wear layer and a sturdy three-layer construction for great stability, as well as a click-together joint that makes DIY installation fast and easy.
