Home Choice Engineered European Rustic Oak Flooring 14mm x 180mm Natural Oiled

Offering a fresh take on country style, Home Choice Engineered European Rustic Oak Flooring 14mm x 180mm Natural Oiled allows the organic beauty of finest European oak to come to the fore.

Featuring the rich grain markings, colour variation, multiple knots, sapwood and mineral streaks that characterise rustic-grade oak, this gorgeous floor is the perfect choice for homeowners seeking a traditional, natural-looking wood floor that's also low maintenance and hardwearing enough for family living. Brushed to enhance their texture, the boards have been given a protective UV oil finish that brings out their natural oak colour, with minimal sheen.

The wide, classic-length planks (180mm x 1100mm) are ideal for use in small and medium length rooms, where they will make the space feel bigger while giving a traditional look.

Thanks to its simple click-together system, this attractive floor offers quick and easy DIY installation as well as a strong three-layer construction and a 2.5mm real wood wear layer for lasting good looks.
