Galleria Professional Engineered Rustic Oak Flooring 20mm x 240mm Vintage Night Brushed & Lacquered

In midnight tones filtered over deep natural hues reminiscent of a cloudy night sky, Galleria Professional Engineered Rustic Oak Vintage Night Brushed & Lacquered is sure to set a dramatic and high-impact look. Through a hand-scraped surface that superbly enhances its textured look, this style delivers an unusual take on dark flooring. A durable lacquer finish provides optimum protection.

Made with European oak, Galleria Professional Engineered Rustic Oak Vintage Night Brushed & Lacquered is a wood floor with the stability and ease of an engineered construction. The rustic grade keeps its natural spirit alive with tonal variation, mineral streaks, sapwood and knots. In an impressive, extra-wide 240mm board best suited to grand rooms, this floor's 1900mm lengths create a classic look with a four-sided bevel defining each plank.

At 20mm thick Galleria Professional Engineered Rustic Oak Vintage Night Brushed & Lacquered is suitable for load-bearing use and comes with a traditional tongue and groove joint. Requiring gluing or nailing, this traditional way of installation is best left to professionals. Looked after with care, this premium engineered wood floor is ready for lasting use.
