Galleria Professional Engineered European Rustic Flooring 20mm X 190mm White Fumed Brushed & Oiled

If you're looking for a statement oak floor that will add a cool and contemporary feel to both period and modern properties, Galleria Professional Multiply Engineered European Rustic Oak Flooring 20mm x 190mm White Fumed Brushed & Oiled is a fantastic choice.

With its rich grain patterns, visible knots and tonal markings – enhanced by a brushed finish – this rustic-grade floor gives quality European oak an on-trend upgrade, with a protective UV oil finish in a beautiful, white fumed tone that will complement a wealth of colour schemes. Working in perfect balance with spacious interiors, the fixed-length wide, long planks measure 190mm x 1900mm, a size that is ideal for creating a feeling of elegance and making long rooms appear more in proportion.

Featuring an engineered wood multi-layer construction for enhanced durability, this load-bearing tongue-and-groove floor is well able to stand up to the rigours of family life, and has a premium 6mm real wood wear layer for an enhanced oak look and feel and a greatly enhanced lifespan. For best results, professional installation is recommended.
