Home Choice Engineered European Rustic Oak Flooring 14mm x 180mm Liquorice Lacquered

If you're looking for a vintage-style floor that will look as if it's been part of your home forever, Home Choice Engineered European Rustic Oak Flooring 180mm Liquorice Lacquered is an ideal choice.

This stunning floor is made in Europe from finest quality oak and features deep, dark brown tones and all the lively grain markings characteristic of a rustic grade, from swirling patterns and multiple knots to sapwood and mineral streaks.

A textured brushed finish and bevelled edges enhance each individual board, resulting in a floor that's simply bursting with character but also hardwearing and easy to care for thanks to multiple coatings of protective UV lacquer; regular vacuuming and occasional damp-mopping is all that's needed to keep this floor looking fantastic.

The wide, classic-length planks (180mm x 1100mm) offer click-together joints and good coverage for fast DIY fitting, and will add a feeling of spaciousness to small and medium size rooms. Bringing effortless period charm to any room in the home, this beautiful floor features a three-layer construction for impressive stability and a standard 2.5mm wear layer for an enhanced lifespan.
