Home Choice Distressed Extra Rustic Engineered Oak Flooring 14mm x 190mm Buttermilk Lacquered

If you really want a rustic look in your home that oozes character and charm, while also providing a bright style that will lighten up any room, then check out our Home Choice Distressed Extra Rustic Engineered Oak Buttermilk floor. This extra rustic design includes additional cracks, grains, and knots to provide a greater distressed look, while the floor also features additional splits within the floor to provide an even greater natural feel. This stunning floor will help lift the personality of any room. These light tones will pair perfectly in any room that you want to feel bright, open, and inviting while also providing an additional feeling of size.

The longer length, wide planks (190mm x 1900mm) of our Home Choice Distressed Extra Rustic Engineered Oak flooring are perfect for creating a fantastic sense of space in larger rooms. Each pack may include shorter starter boards. Complete with a 3mm wear layer and standing at 14mm thick, these boards are brushed to help expose the natural grain and are then UV lacquered for additional protection from wear and tear.
