Audacity 12mm Laminate Tile Quarry Grey

With a modern and moody look, Audacity 12mm Laminate Tile Quarry Grey packs a contemporary look into a floor with minimalist appeal. The on-trend grey tone looks just as good in a bright and welcoming kitchen as it does in a dark and cosy bathroom. With added definition from the four bevelled edges on each board, this stylish and authentically textured floor is just as adept at making a statement as it is at handling all the spills and splashes that come from life in a busy home.

With a DIY-friendly click system promising a quick and easy fit even for novice DIYers, the built-in underlay speeds this process up even further. With an extra rigid core, there's added stability to be found here with less chance of movement across the even the biggest spaces in your home.

You'll find complete and utter peace of mind with this floor, thanks to its lifetime residential warranty and AC4 Heavy Domestic rating. Thanks to its easy to care for nature and stain resistant surface, as well as 72-hour water-resistance, spills and messes can be wiped away with such ease that they'll never trouble you again.
