City City 8mm Laminate Tile Revival White

An opulent white floor is hard to match, doubly so when married to the look and feel of stone. This ultimate expression of luxury is what City 8mm Laminate Tile Revival White brings with the bright hues of its stone effect texture, taking a coveted combination further by mixing in all the great practical benefits of a laminate floor, not least of which is the ease of care and installation.

For DIYers this floor is absolutely must-have if you want to add the magnificence of white stone to your home – thanks to click system technology, this floor makes for a simple and hassle-free installation. With each tile coming in at 605mm x 282mm it upholds its mission to create the genuine impression of a stone floor in your home, a mantra enhanced further when the floor is finished thanks to its four bevelled edges.

More than just a stylish package, this floor piles in heaps of benefits too. Not only is laminate warmer underfoot than real stone would be, but it's as sturdy as the genuine article with an AC4 Heavy Domestic rating. Combine that with a 20-year residential warranty, and you have a gorgeous floor that's ready to take on even the highest traffic rooms of the busiest homes for a long time to come.
