These natural looking boards are supplied in a variety of tones that will help provide exceptional character to any room thanks to a myriad of real wood grains, lines, sapwood, and knots. To help provide extra protection to the surface of your new floor, these boards are UV lacquered to ensure they're easy to care for and stay looking their best for longer.

These thin width planks (90mm) come in random lengths of 400-1200mm for a subtle design that will suit any sized room. Made from high quality birch wood, these floors will help provide a homely feel in a light and traditional style.
